Dear Members of the Cedaredge Board of Trustees:

I would like to present this Letter of Intent signifying my interest in the vacancy on the Town of Cedaredge Board of Trustees.

After attending the University of Wisconsin, I married Jeff Hirschboeck and moved to Steamboat Springs, Colorado. When we first arrived in Steamboat Springs, I worked at waitressing and bartending, while my husband ski patrolled and ran heavy equipment. Years later, my resume included Group Sales Manager for the Steamboat Ski and Resort Corporation, Advertising Manager Steamboat Pilot and Today newspapers and Marketing Director for a large management company.

For the past 35 years, I have been involved with community service in some capacity. Some of my past community service in Steamboat Springs included serving on the boards of the United Way, Partners in Routt County and the Steamboat Springs Arts Council. During that time, I also served on the Steamboat Ski Resort Corporation/City of Steamboat Human Resource Coalition and the Steamboat Springs Chamber Summer Marketing Committee.

My husband and I fell in love with Cedaredge upon visiting in 2007, and moved to Cedaredge to semi-retire shortly thereafter. Upon making Cedaredge my new home, I have served on the Cedaredge Golf Course Advisory Committee, Deer Creek Village HOA Board and President, the Legislative Committee for the Colorado Board of Realtors, The Delta County Tourism Cabinet, and am currently serving on the Surface Creek Animal Shelter Board of Directors. An appointment to the Cedaredge Trustee seat vacancy would be a continuation of my honoring community service.

In addition to my business and marketing skills, my background includes event planning, fundraising, bid proposal and grant writing.

Thank you for your consideration,

Kathy Hirschboeck
